

THEIR BIG DAY Colored People Celebrate Emancipation Day

AT RIVERSIDE PARK Program Is Continued in Peerless Hall at Night.

Yesterday was the big day for all the colored people of this city. It was their annual picnic in honor of their freedom from slavery. They held a big picnic in Riverside park yesterday afternoon and a grand social in Peerless hall in the evening.

POND'S EXTRACT advertisement with image of a man and text: 'AFTER WORK OR EXERCISE POND'S EXTRACT Soothes Tired Muscles; Removes Soreness and Stiffness.'

The high station to which this race had attained. He then brought them on through to the time of their overthrow and then showed their landing in America as slaves. He told of the negro being in bondage for two and one-half centuries, during which time there was not one case of disloyalty.

STEWART IS SMART Gave Democrats Pointers On Tactics Saturday.

BRADBERRY IS HIS NAME He Wanted a Former Democrat on Ticket.

Some of the Populist leaders in this city were somewhat disturbed yesterday when they found out that Jim Dorsey was getting out petitions and sending them over west of the river for signatures to have Mr. Bradberry's name put on the official ticket as the nominee of the Independent party.

AWAY FROM HOME Police Capture Two Boys Here Yesterday.

Two runaway boys were captured yesterday by the police. They were Sam Wright of St. Joseph, Mo., and Ed Sterling of Leavenworth. The Wright boy is about 17-years-old and the other about 15. They have been away from home about five months.

INER SEAL advertisement for National Biscuit Company. Includes text: 'Even if you live next door to a bakery you can go around the corner to the little grocery store and get your biscuit in the In-er-seal Patent Package just as fresh as you could get them at the bakery.'

Captain Fishback was born in Kentucky and knowing the characteristics of the Afro-American race, he went back to the dark days of slavery and pictured them in their trials and struggles.

As the captain contrasted the log cabin and the palatial mansion, he became eloquent and pathetic in his description of the wonderful and unprecedented progress the race had made since the cloud of slavery had parted and let the sunshine of freedom and hope in their souls.

As the captain contrasted the log cabin and the palatial mansion, he became eloquent and pathetic in his description of the wonderful and unprecedented progress the race had made since the cloud of slavery had parted and let the sunshine of freedom and hope in their souls.

HE SAW THE FUNERAL Cleave Smyser Saw the Procession Leave the Negro Home.

Cleave Smyser and brother have been spending their vacation in Buffalo and New York city and just returned yesterday. Cleave gave quite a graphic description of the funeral of the president, as he was there and saw the whole thing.

Consumption Threatened. C. U. Wright, of Chicago, Ill., writes: 'I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year, and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months.'

SANTA FE PEOPLE SUED Case of Santa Fe vs. Alonzo Maib Disposed Of.

The case of Alonzo Maib by his next friend J. W. Maib vs. the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, a suit for $2,000 damages, was called in the district court this morning and is still in progress.

BEAUTIFUL ROSES advertisement with image of a woman and text: 'Beautiful women are gathered together nearly every season to select delicate fragrant roses to give to their friends.'

STOOD DEATH OFF. E. B. Mumway, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger.

His brother was very low with malaria fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued his cure until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life.

HE SAW THE FUNERAL Cleave Smyser Saw the Procession Leave the Negro Home.

Cleave Smyser and brother have been spending their vacation in Buffalo and New York city and just returned yesterday. Cleave gave quite a graphic description of the funeral of the president, as he was there and saw the whole thing.

Working Night and Day. The busiest and most interesting thing that ever was made in Dr. King's Neck Life Pills.

CARS WERE DELAYED West Side Line Had a Hard Time Yesterday.

The street cars on the West Side had quite a time of it yesterday. It almost seemed as though fate was against them. About 12:30 car No. 113 was going west on Seneca and an extra heavy gust of wind struck her right at the end of the switch.

CHILD IS IMPROVING Little Girl, Though Badly Scalded, Is Much Better.

A 5-year-old child, whose little girl was scalded a few days ago, says that the little one is getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cured her.

BEAUTIFUL ROSES advertisement with image of a woman and text: 'Beautiful women are gathered together nearly every season to select delicate fragrant roses to give to their friends.'

NO RELIEF FOR 20 YEARS. 'I had bronchitis for twenty years,' said Mrs. Minerva Smith of Danville, Ill., 'and never got relief until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, which is a sure cure for throat and lung disease.'

Harry Stewart has always claimed that the Populist party ought to go out of business, because there was no excuse for its existence, and for that reason, he was always opposed to fusion. If he can get the Populists in the Third district to give up their name for something else, he will be leading them a long way in the direction of the Democratic party.

VETERANS LOUD IN HIS PRAISE Old Soldiers Charmed by Rev. Lynch's Sermon.

Yesterday the old soldiers of the community had but one topic among them: the memorial sermon delivered by Rev. Lynch in the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. Two veterans in the Eagle office last evening said that Rev. Lynch's denunciation of anarchy was the most scathing they had ever heard delivered.

BECAUSE OF A DOG. People on Santa Fe Avenue Fined in Police Court.

There was all kinds of excitement in public court yesterday. A grand neighborhood quarrel was heard by the judge. It is alleged that a few weeks ago Jacob Hanson attempted to give a dog to the dog-catcher and that Will Jenks threatened him with an iron bar. The dog is supposed to have belonged to the Griffith family and they have never paid any tax on him.

HELD SPECIAL MEETING Seven New Members Taken Into the Eagle's Lodge.

The Eagles held a special meeting on Sunday to take in seven new members, principally traveling men who are not in town during the week. Some of these candidates live at a distance. The Eagles, like everything else in Wichita, is booming and it frequently happens that they have to hold special meetings to take in new members.

SAW BAY OF FUNDY Boyhood Dream of S. W. Cooper Is Realized.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cooper and the children returned yesterday from a nine weeks' tour in the east, the trip starting from Chicago to Buffalo by boat, down the St. Lawrence river to Montreal, to Nova Scotia, to Evangeline's land, down through Maine, then by boat to Boston, to Newport, to New York, where Mr. Cooper witnessed the Abbott-Crowens race, then to New York and Atlantic City. One of the curious incidents of the delightful trip was this: When he was a boy one of the lessons of geography which took hold of Mr. Cooper was that in the Bay of Fundy the tide rises twenty feet regularly. From the moment he landed in New York he was determined to walk thirty miles before he got in the Bay of Fundy. This summer he was near the Bay of Fundy and he made a special trip to see it.

HE GETS SAD NEWS Mr. J. Oak Davidson Hears of Cousin's Death.

Mr. J. Oak Davidson received a telegram yesterday from Austin, Minnesota, announcing the death of his cousin, Chas. H. Davidson. The announcement will be learned with regret here where the deceased had so many friends. For three or four years previous to 1901, Mr. Davidson lived in Wichita, and besides being vice-president of the Kansas National bank, he was its active manager. He studied the interests of Wichita and identified himself closely with them, always indulgent with tardy business men at a time when every day was critical in the affairs of practically every bank in the country.

GERMAN DAY EXERCISES Big Program to Be Carried Out at City's Grove Tonight.

This evening at 8 o'clock will occur the German day exercises. All those who have been invited to former similar entertainments are invited to this. This promises to be one of the most delightful events of the season. All arrangements to make it so have been completed. The tableaux, representing the historical scenes which will be presented, will be exceptionally beautiful; the moving pictures and the music, vocal and instrumental, and other features assure the attendants of a thoroughly enjoyable evening. The night will be moonlit, and the evening air of Indian summer gives it a fine setting.

ARTHUR STERNBERG ILL He Is Very Sick With an Attack of Typhoid.

Arthur Sternberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sternberg, is very ill with typhoid fever. The attack has been coming on for several days, but not until yesterday did the malady develop with its usual intensity of fever. Arthur is a very popular young gentleman, all sunshine and happiness, and a host of friends, young and old, wait anxiously for the latest word from his bedside. He has physical strength, lots of grit, and with the prayers of his numerous friends, he will be able surely to overcome the disease that has assailed him.

CASTORIA. The Kid You Can Depend On.

The first department was called out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a gin of rubbish at the corner of First and Water. The fire was set by a spark from an engine and it was thought for awhile that Mr. Diver's livery barn was in danger. The work of the department was stopped the flames so that no further damage was to be feared.

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'

FORMERLY LIVED HERE Was Vice President of Kansas National Bank.

Mr. J. Oak Davidson received a telegram yesterday from Austin, Minnesota, announcing the death of his cousin, Chas. H. Davidson. The announcement will be learned with regret here where the deceased had so many friends. For three or four years previous to 1901, Mr. Davidson lived in Wichita, and besides being vice-president of the Kansas National bank, he was its active manager. He studied the interests of Wichita and identified himself closely with them, always indulgent with tardy business men at a time when every day was critical in the affairs of practically every bank in the country.

CASTORIA. The Kid You Can Depend On.

The first department was called out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a gin of rubbish at the corner of First and Water. The fire was set by a spark from an engine and it was thought for awhile that Mr. Diver's livery barn was in danger. The work of the department was stopped the flames so that no further damage was to be feared.

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

CASTORIA. The Kid You Can Depend On.

The first department was called out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a gin of rubbish at the corner of First and Water. The fire was set by a spark from an engine and it was thought for awhile that Mr. Diver's livery barn was in danger. The work of the department was stopped the flames so that no further damage was to be feared.

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'

HE GETS SAD NEWS Mr. J. Oak Davidson Hears of Cousin's Death.

Mr. J. Oak Davidson received a telegram yesterday from Austin, Minnesota, announcing the death of his cousin, Chas. H. Davidson. The announcement will be learned with regret here where the deceased had so many friends. For three or four years previous to 1901, Mr. Davidson lived in Wichita, and besides being vice-president of the Kansas National bank, he was its active manager. He studied the interests of Wichita and identified himself closely with them, always indulgent with tardy business men at a time when every day was critical in the affairs of practically every bank in the country.

GERMAN DAY EXERCISES Big Program to Be Carried Out at City's Grove Tonight.

This evening at 8 o'clock will occur the German day exercises. All those who have been invited to former similar entertainments are invited to this. This promises to be one of the most delightful events of the season. All arrangements to make it so have been completed. The tableaux, representing the historical scenes which will be presented, will be exceptionally beautiful; the moving pictures and the music, vocal and instrumental, and other features assure the attendants of a thoroughly enjoyable evening. The night will be moonlit, and the evening air of Indian summer gives it a fine setting.

ARTHUR STERNBERG ILL He Is Very Sick With an Attack of Typhoid.

Arthur Sternberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sternberg, is very ill with typhoid fever. The attack has been coming on for several days, but not until yesterday did the malady develop with its usual intensity of fever. Arthur is a very popular young gentleman, all sunshine and happiness, and a host of friends, young and old, wait anxiously for the latest word from his bedside. He has physical strength, lots of grit, and with the prayers of his numerous friends, he will be able surely to overcome the disease that has assailed him.

CASTORIA. The Kid You Can Depend On.

The first department was called out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a gin of rubbish at the corner of First and Water. The fire was set by a spark from an engine and it was thought for awhile that Mr. Diver's livery barn was in danger. The work of the department was stopped the flames so that no further damage was to be feared.

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'

Two Carloads of Pianos and Organs

Just Received... And Another Coming. I never had so many fine Pianos. I never had such pretty cases. I never made such low prices. I never wanted to show you as bad as now.

CASTORIA. The Kid You Can Depend On.

The first department was called out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a gin of rubbish at the corner of First and Water. The fire was set by a spark from an engine and it was thought for awhile that Mr. Diver's livery barn was in danger. The work of the department was stopped the flames so that no further damage was to be feared.

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'

EVERY WOMAN! Housekeepers, wives, mothers, every woman who has the care of a family or household, has at one time or another spells of backache, nervous weakness, sick headache and disorders in the digestion, caused as a rule by domestic worry, overwork, irregular meals or habitual constipation. To all women who suffer in this way, we say:

Prickly Ash Bitters advertisement with text: 'Prickly Ash Bitters is not a diarrhoeic, harrowing medicine as the name might indicate. It is pleasant to the taste, mild yet powerful in its cleansing and regulating influence on the vital organs.'